Roasted Bone In Split Chicken Breasts With Rosemary & Lemon

INGREDIENTS:

- 3-4 to 5 pounds bone-in skin-on chicken breasts
- 1 teaspoon kosher salt
- 1/2 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
- 2 tablespoons extra virgin olive oil
- 6 tablespoons butter, divided
- 2 large garlic cloves, peeled and cut in half
- 2 large rosemary sprigs
- 6 thyme sprigs, single stems)
- 2 large sage leaves
- Zest of one lemon, about 4 teaspoons
- 1/4 cup white wine
- 1/2 cup freshly squeezed lemon juice, about three large lemons
- 1 to 2 fresh lemons cut into 8 to 10 wedges.

DIRECTIONS:

1. Preheat oven to 425 degrees.
2. Pat chicken dry and sprinkle with the salt and pepper on the skin side only.
3. In a large skillet or sauté pan, heat the olive oil over medium high heat. Once simmering, add chicken skin side down and sear in two batches. Sear for 3-5 minutes or until the skin is golden. Only sear the skin down sides. Remove each batch and place on a 13 by 9 inch casserole dish.
4. In the same pan used to cook the chicken, lower heat to medium and add 2 tablespoons of butter, the halved garlic cloves, the whole rosemary sprigs, whole thyme sprigs and the two sage leaves. Cook for three minutes then add the zest and white wine. Cook to evaporate the wine, about 2-3 minutes total.
5. Flatten the garlic with a fork then add the lemon juice and cook for 2 minutes. Remove from heat and stir in 2 more tablespoons of butter.
6. Pour this mixture into the casserole dish with the chicken, pour around the chicken breast pieces. Place the 8 lemon wedges around the chicken.
7. Important - keep the skillet on the stove with all of its ingredients to be used later.
8. Depending on the size of the breast halves, cooking time will vary. Breast halves about a pound and a quarter each will take around 45 minutes. Smaller breast pieces will take less time.
9. Place the pan in the oven uncovered and keep checking with a probe thermometer inserted into the thickest part from about the 30 minutes mark and remove from the oven at 160 degrees. If the breast halves are not all the same size, some may be done sooner than others. Remove as they each reach 160. They will continue to cook outside the oven.
10. Remove the chicken and the lemon wedges to a platter and loosely cover with foil.
11. Strain the sauce from the casserole dish and pour into the skillet you used earlier. Discard solids.
12. Heat until it starts to bubble, remove from heat and whisk in the remaining 2 tablespoons of butter. The sauce will thicken slightly. Serve alongside the chicken. Enjoy!

Time To Cook: Total time:
About 1 hour 10 minutes till ready to serve.
Hands on time: 30 minutes
Oven cooking time: 40-45 minutes
